We all come to Connected by Hearts with different stories and heart conditions.

Some of us have experienced sudden cardiac arrest (SCA) and have a diagnosis, while others do not have a specific diagnosis. Several of us have been diagnosed with heart conditions without experiencing SCA. Some of us have had surgery and many of us are living with an implantable cardioverter defibrillator (ICD) or pacemaker.

We all took our own path to get here, but we'll continue the journey Connected by Hearts.
